

Tyler-area Catholic Homeschool Resources

Academic Resources

Catholic Schoolhouse

tylertx@catholicschoolhouse.com

Meets once a week from 8:40 - 1 at St. Peter Claver in Tyler.

A classical program that supplements your choice of curriculum. Catholic Schoolhouse (CSH) brings families together, allowing them to share and experience immersion in a loving Catholic community that strives to grow in virtue and holiness. This community follows a curriculum that is set and simply followed. No parent needs to be an expert on the class that they lead; detailed instructions and scripts are provided.

Holy Family Academy Co-op

lisa@stalnaker.org

Meets all-day at Veritatis Splendor (Winona) on Tuesday, class times vary.

A variety of enrichment and academic classes offered serving students from 1st grade through 12th. Students take only the classes of interest to them and are not required to stay the whole day.

Our Lady of Virtues Homeschool Co-op

leanne.clary@tutamail.com

Meets in Winona Wednesdays from 9 - 12 PM.

This free, parent-led co-op is a combination of various subjects, virtue lessons, and high school classes on academic days and social days which include liturgical events, field trips, unit studies, and service outings.

St. Edward Academy

www.stewardacademy.org

Meets Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 8:30 - 3 in Athens.

K-12, hybrid school that utilizes Seton Homeschool Curriculum to work in partnership with parents to provide a quality, Catholic education to each student.

Social Resources

Catholic Family Adventure Club

www.catholicfamilyadventureclub.com

Meets in Tyler and surrounding areas approximately six times a month; day and times vary.

A homeschool social community that comes together for field trips, liturgical events, community Mass, service projects, park dates, and more. This is a cafeteria-style program where families attend those events that work for them.
